

Galactic Glamour

It may look like the surface of Jupiter, but the new Chanel Sparkling eyeshadow in metallic meteorite shades is out of this world. Part of the limited edition Christmas range, Lumiere D'Artifices, the gorgeous selection of gold, diamond and ruby colours would be a gem in any girl's stocking. Play with the fusion of colours contained in each palette to create sparkling highlights or heavy metal colour. Chanel Lumiere D'Artifices Eyeshadow $76

1000 Lashes

Now that thick-coated lashes are back, I can breath a sigh of relief that kind colleagues can stop offering me their eyelash comb. For those of us that like to pump up the volume to frightening degrees, Maybelline's new Volum' Express turbo boost mascara is a godsend. Also available in waterproof, you can now keep your lashes loaded at weddings, the beach or even the shower. Marlo Thomas, Tammy Faye, Priscilla Presley, we love you. Volum' Express, $15

Draw the line

I am a fan of liquid eyeliner. Don't get me wrong, I'm not talking about those bad 90s, "I'm so Audrey Hepburn" wings, some folk still won't quit it with. I'm talking a nice, subtle line, without any flicks and flourishes, just to give a little definition. Therefore, when liquid liners come in different colours like the new Pure Colour Eyeliner from Estée Lauder, I think it's newsworthy. Available in Pure Black, Plum Cassis, Brown, Khaki and Indigo, the colours glide on easily, and unfortunately, or fortunately (depending on your stance) are all too easy to flick and kick with. Estée Lauder Pure Colour Eyeliner $44.

Birds of Paradise

Thanks to Linda Cantello, Artistic Advisor for Yves Saint Laurent Makeup, colour is back in a big way. Skin is sun-kissed and golden; easily achievable with brightening Teint Parfait no 7 in Golden Sand and a dusting of new bronzing shade no 4 Sunny Glow. Then comes the colour: delicious, sheer brights in blues, greens, corals, golds, lavender and pink. Try the limited edition Fard Eclat waterproof eyeshadow, easily blended with the fingertips and available in apricot, gold, blue and mauve. As Ms Cantello says, "With this collection you've got to be daring. Forget the colour of your eyes or clothes and simply go for the colours you love." Fard Eclat waterproof shadow, $55; Multi Finish lipstick, $48

Smells Like...

Someone's grandmother once said that a lady should never smell like anyone else. She should mix her fragrances so as no cheap hussy wearing the same signature scent could steal away her man. Well, I like a few bestseller scents myself, but there are times when a lady likes a bit of mystery. Renée Griffith thought the same thing when, at the age of 28, she gave up her job in real estate to create her very own collection of boutique fragrances, Renée. Seeing a gap in the marketplace for a more personalised, exclusive fragrance brand, she developed bewitching blends of amber, lily and snowpeach. All of the Renée fragrances are available as parfum, scented candles, body lotion and individual soaps. Renée Parfum 30ml, $55
