

FRAGRANCE

MELBOURNE corporate real estate agent turned perfumer Renee Griffith is making a name for herself offshore. Griffith, who launched her self-titled fragrance range, Renee, 18 months ago, is now available in Harvey Nichols' new flagship store in Hong Kong, which opened in the Landmark Centre earlier this month. Griffith's range of fragrances, soaps, candles, room sprays and body lotions sits alongside cult beauty brands including the fragrances of London fashion designer Matthew Williamson, Carthusia scents from the Italian island of Capri and Giorgio Armani Cosmetics, in the store's exclusive Beyond Beauty department. Griffith's range of scented products which are stocked in 50 locations throughout Australia including Myer Melbourne and GPO perfumery DNA, have also just landed in London - in the new retail outlet of online beauty store My Vanity Case, which has just opened in trendy Walton Street in Chelsea.

For stockists, tel: 9880 7846